

SID: Hello. Sid Roth here. Welcome to my world where it's naturally supernatural. My guest says this is your year to possess the gates of your future and she wants you to take it!

Is there a supernatural dimension, a world beyond the one we know? Can we tap into ancient secrets of the supernatural? Can our dreams contain messages from heaven? Is God ready to bring a tsunami wave of healing onto Planet Earth today? Sid Roth has spent over 40 years researching the strange world of the supernatural. Join Sid for this edition of It's Supernatural.

SID: You know Cindy, you were recently in Portugal and there were a group of gypsies, you were speaking to them, and one was brought forward who was in the last stages of cancer. What happened?

CINDY: Well it's very interesting. There was actually a gypsy man who was in the hospital, and yes, just last stages. They were going to see what they could do to help him. And we arrived and they said, "Well this is so sad. What are we going to do?" And so we set a cloth that we prayed over it. It's amazing. You lay hands on a cloth and the power of God goes into it. So they took him to hospital. The next morning they operated on him, and so when they opened him up, they just closed him back up and because there was no cancer in his body.

SID: You know Cindy, you're known as an intercessor. But what exactly is an intercessor?

CINDY: Well you know, an intercessor is one that prays more for others, although you can intercede for yourself. But an intercessor is going to hear from God, sit in the presence of God and let him give some instructions to them on how to pray. It's very important. Don't just, you can pray petition praying, which is a list you pray. I have lists I pray over every day. There's five things I pray every day for myself. But I want to say to you it's very important to pray like militant prayers. I mean, many times we're very quiet when we pray. That's great. I pray those kind of prayers. But I remember a story about Gordon Lindsay. Can I tell the story?

SID: Please.

CINDY: It's such a great story. Let me just talk to you guys here on the camera.

SID: Excuse me. You use a word and I haven't been able to shake this word, when you talk about this prayer of Gordon Lindsay. It's called "violent". You ever heard of violent? You're about ready to hear about it.

CINDY: Yes. There comes a time in your life where you say enough is enough. There's a great Spanish word for it: "basta." I mean, it means no more, that's it, it's over. And when sometimes a situation will be in our life and all of a sudden it occurs to us, wait a minute, I have power and authority right here, and I can stop this. And it's like a holy indignation. There's something that just comes up from inside of you, and we call it violent, militant intercession, where we just say, "Satan, you will stop! Basta! You are not doing this anymore. It's over! Your reign is over and your authority." This is such a good story, such a good story. Well I write in my book, "Possessing the Gates of the Enemy" a training manual for militant intercession. That's a gutsy subtitle, isn't it. But anyway, and that Gordon and Freda were in a place, and a woman heard Gordon's voice, and she said to Freda, Mrs. Lindsay, she said, "Were you in Shreveport on such and such a day, and was he praying those kind of prayers on such and such a day?" Because Gordon said everyone should pray at least one violent prayer every day, at least one, just rev it up there. And so sure enough, Freda taught, "Yes we were." And she said, "You know, my husband always prayed like an atomic bomb going off. He'd get up at 5 a.m. and just pray these violent prayers that shook hell and populated Heaven through the intercession." And so anyway, but he did that and he was known for that. And I think that it's important to pray prayers with authority and declaration, and I've heard you pray those prayers, Sid. You believe in that.

SID: Every time I've read that story about Gordon Lindsay, don't you forget that, he believed you should pray one violent prayer per day. If there's something that you're so angry with the devil, have you got a child that doesn't know the Lord? Have you got a child that's in drugs? I can think of a lot of reasons why you want to pray a violent prayer. But there's another aspect that this woman does that I want to understand. I understand Satan hates it when you laugh.

CINDY: [laughing] Yes. That's great. That's great, Sid. I was casting out demons one time.

SID: No wonder.

CINDY: Yes, it's a great job. Anyway, I was casting out demons and this demon, all of a sudden I started to laugh and this demon manifested like this. I hate that voice. I hate that voice. I've heard that laugh all over the world. Of course, it would just make me laugh more.

SID: Of course.

CINDY: I was just laughing and laughing, and laughing. But Psalm 2 talks about, "The Lord laughs in derision."

SID: So in effect, you are laughing at the results of what you've just accomplished.

CINDY: Yes. If God is going to laugh in the earth realm, he's going to laugh at us, right, just like he prayed for us through the power of the Holy Spirit. So that's a great intercession.

SID: You talk about all over the world that when people understand intercessory prayer they can avert a national crisis. Tell me about one.

CINDY: Absolutely. There are so many. Oh I'll tell you a good one. You know, I always say, people, you need to pray for my husband Mike because, Sid, being married to intercessor is just a different life. I always tell him, Mike, you have more starch in your crown for just being married to me. So I wake this guy out of dead sleep and I say, "Mike, Mike, wake up! There's going to be a terrorist attack on a plane and it just left! We got to pray right now for it to stop." Well he kind of like opened one eye ball and kind of rolled over, handed me his hand and we prayed. And it was averted that night. It was the shoe bomber.

SID: I have heard so many stories. You don't have any idea how much power and authority that God is entrusted to you. But you know, when I hear intercessor I think of someone interceding for someone else. But guess what? If you know how to intercede for someone else you know how to intercede for yourself, for your loved ones, for your job, for your peace, for anything. Is it a boring life being an intercessor?

CINDY: [laughing] Gotcha.

SID: That's enough. We got the devil. We'll be right back after this.

SID: Cindy, what do you mean when you say "possessing the gates of the enemy"?

CINDY: Well remember, we were given a promise in Genesis 22:17. It was given to Abraham: "Where its Abraham's seed, that we would possess the gates of the enemy?" So what are doors that are closed to you? This is part of the Word for this year, that God will give us these gates, like you needed a promotion or maybe your children aren't doing what they need to do, or maybe you can just feel oppression all around you. Satan is trying to close [them to] you so you feel depressed. That's a gate. That's a gate to your emotions. And so we have authority in the name of Jesus to open gates. Isaiah 22:22: "Open what no man can shut. Shut what no man can open."

SID: And you said we should expect to enter when we talk to God and not give up.

CINDY: We've got to be persistent in our praying and one thing we need to do—well this is a time of acceleration. We talked about that spiritual acceleration, things are going faster and faster—is when we pray, take time to listen to God. What is the solution to pray? Many times we pray the problem, but we don't pray with authority what the solution is. For instance, your child is in darkness. Well that's not God's will. That's your child, your seed. So we say, in the name of Jesus, Father, this child was created for glory. This child was created to do great things.

SID: Excuse me, as you just prayed that, the power of God was so strong on you.

CINDY: Yes.

SID: It was so strong. Go ahead. I observe things. I'm accommodating.

CINDY: Yes, he loves the Anointing. Well let's just do it. Why don't we just do it. In the name of Jesus, come on, let's all agree, we just stand right now and we say that the power of Satan is broken over our children, over our finances. Satan, you can't rob us of our dreams. I mean, we say enough is enough, again, that good words, it's finished. Basta! Enough! It's over. You lose! You lose and we win!

[cheers, applause]

SID: I don't know, you'd better watch out. Look what you did to this audience. Imagine what they're doing at home.

CINDY: I'm an intercessor.

SID: You have a synonym for intercessor and I have to tell you, there's something that just gets excited in me when I hear the synonym for intercessor. You call it an enforcer.

CINDY: Yes.

SID: Tell me about how you enforced in Zambia.

CINDY: Zimbabwe.

SID: Zimbabwe.

CINDY: "Z" word. This is such a great story. And I love it because I'm on my way to Zimbabwe. Well there was a guy who was so evil, Mugabe, who had been over Zimbabwe a long time and just didn't want to leave. And so we got together a group of prophets who were so powerful, prophets from 35 nations, and we began to decree over Mugabe that he was out. We said it's going to be suddenly, it's going to happen now, it's not going to be later, it's going to be sooner. And Sid, like I told you, as we prayed, the tanks were rolling into Harare, pulling Mugabe out of his office. As we prayed we made news. And then we began to decree over other dictators, and one of them, the evil presidents or whatever, the next one was Zuma out of South Africa, and he's gone, too. And there's a Christian guy, I'm told, I'm going to South Africa, too, there's a Christian guy I'm told, that is now the President of South Africa. God is realigning nations through militant intercession, through people who know we can stand up. We have been given authority through the name of Jesus. Remember the word doesn't say that Jesus—whatever you ask me to bind for you. No, that's done. We've been given authority. Whatever WE bind in his name. And there's a real difference there.

SID: You hear what Cindy is saying. She was with a group of powerful men and women of God, and you say, I'm just little me. I am not going to be, a child can do this. Tell me about with your son.

CINDY: Yes. Oh that's a great story, Sid. My son, when he was six, came into the house and said, "Mommy, I don't feel good." Now again, that discerning of spirits is important. Was he physically sick or was there something spiritually that we needed to attend to? So I discerned it was the latter. And I said, "Daniel, what is it God is saying to you?" And he looks at me. Listen guys, this is so important. He looks at me and he says, "Mommy, could the president be killed?" A six-year-old is telling me this. I said, "Yes, absolutely, it's called assassination." He said, "Yes?" I said, "Do you want to pray right now about that?" He goes, "Yes." And this little six-year-old, you know the Holy Spirit [fits] a junior size, so he learned how to let the Holy Spirit move. So Daniel starts praying and saying that's going to stop and it's not going to happen in the name of Jesus, and all of a sudden, I said, "Well did you do it? Is it covered?" "Oh yeah, it's fine now, mom." And he went out to play.

SID: You have been called to be an enforcer of the Kingdom of Heaven against all darkness in your life and your loved one's lives. Cindy, I got a problem. There's so much we want to cover with you and there's just not enough time. And if you want to see the extended content of this program, all you have to do is log on to SidRoth.org, that's S-I-D-R-O-T-H-O-R-G. And when we come back, I want to know how to possess the gates of my future, of your future.

We now return to It's Supernatural.

SID: You say that God told you it's time to possess the gates of our future. What does that mean?

CINDY: Well you know, God has a destiny and a plan for all of us and some people seem like one bad thing has happened after the other and they lose hope. They think they'll never be restored. But we need to go back and say, okay, what is my legacy, what is it I should be doing? Don't declare detente to the enemy, or just say, well I guess that's never going to happen in my life.

SID: Or I'm too old.

CINDY: Or I'm too old, that's a big one. There are things that have been delayed and delayed, and delayed, and we need to say, no, I'm taking it back. That is mine. It was meant for me. I mean, such is your inheritance. Mike and I decided we were going to look at our heritage and call back what should have been. For instance, Mike's family owned about enough property in Tennessee, it would have been several counties, where the property—and somebody gambled it away. So we went back and cut that gambling spirit and we said, but the wealth from that should have been for our children, and our children's children. You see, Satan robbed us. That's a gate of the enemy. But even generationally, we don't just have to say, oh too bad, and we have prospered so much since we started doing that. Well you know, there are things, Sid, that we have believed for a long, long time and we just didn't have it. It just seemed like it wasn't working. And but when we realized we had to seize the moment, we had to say, okay, we're going to take these opportunities and the door is going to open, wow, I can't even talk about it all the doors that are opening for us now. It's so big. And of course, we meet with a lot of presidents, a lot of people around the world. But the gates are even bigger because we are seizing those moments. We're believing in them. Listen, I'm going to refire until I go to be with Jesus. I don't think retirement is really in the Bible. And so I think it's a season that we've got to learn to walk from season to season, to season in our life. Maybe you always wanted to go on a mission trip. Maybe you wanted to do a lot of things, but you were a nine to five. Now you're in God's army. You're in the army now and you can get mobilized. There's something you can do, and I want to talk to somebody right now. So there is someone watching this show and you have just retired, and you're a little bit at loose ends. The Lord says open your eyes, open your eyes. I have things that need to be done. I have gates that need to be open and you need to make a change in your mentality.

SID: Is this a special season?

CINDY: Yes.

SID: A special time?

CINDY: Yes.

SID: There is something going on. God is doing something.

CINDY: I tell you, I can feel it in the atmosphere right here, in this studio. I feel something, I mean, I feel it in the audience, I feel it here, I feel for you watching. Listen, the Anointing of God goes right over these cameras into your living room wherever you're watching, on your phone. The Anointing of God is coming upon you for a season of suddenlies, a season of acceleration, things that you waited a long, long time for, they're happening. Gates that have been shut, you're going to command to open. That promotion, you're going to command to open. So you just have to make a decision. This show is for you. You're shaking off the past, shaking off disappointments and you're going to the future.

SID: Cindy, you just spoke to someone right now, spoke to you, but there are others right now that are saying, she has something that I want. I'll tell you what she has. She has experiential knowledge of God. I'll tell you what she has. She hears God's voice. I'll tell you what she has. She is not fearful of anything. I'll tell you what she has. She has the Living God living inside of her and I promise you you're watching this show because God is not a respecter of persons. If you will say this prayer with me right now and mean it, you will have what she has. You will have what I have. You will have what my audience has. Repeat after me right now: Dear God.

Audience: Dear God

SID: I'm a sinner.

Audience: I'm a sinner.

SID: And I'm so sorry.

Audience: And I'm so sorry.

SID: I believe

Audience: I believe

SID: The blood of Jesus

Audience: The blood of Jesus

SID: Washes away those sins.

Audience: Washes away those sins.

SID: It's a new beginning for me.

Audience: It's a new beginning for me.

SID: I'm not looking back.

Audience: I'm not looking back.

SID: I am clean.

Audience: I am clean.

SID: And now that I am clean...

Audience: And now that I am clean...

SID: I ask Jesus to live inside of me.

Audience: I ask Jesus to live inside of me.

SID: And be my Lord.

Audience: And be my Lord.

SID: Amen.

Audience: Amen.

SID: You know, I recently interviewed James Goll and he had to run to catch a plane, and this is what he said when he ran out. He said, "Sid, because you prayed that prayer," the one I just prayed, "1000 people are now born from above and know Jesus." I want to remind you that we've got more with Cindy and if you want to see the extended content of this program all you have to do is log on right now to SidRoth.org, S-I-D-R-O-T-H-O-R-G.
